MARBLE WITHOUT THE WEIGHT

FOUR BEAUTIFUL PIECES THAT MAKE A BIG IMPRESSION WITHOUT THE HERNIA.

BY MONICA KHEMSUROV

AUGUST 2010 ISSUE

From the Venus de Milo to the Taj Mahal, marble has always been a great way to make a big impression. More recently, Marc Newson's 2,000-pound bookshelf and Rick Owens' two-ton stone daybed both required a crane to cart them home. But the Bouroullec brothers' Murano-glass-and-marble hurricane lantern achieves the look without the hernia.
